POLICE HAVE POWER

THE STATE FAIR GROUNDS ARE WITHIN FOUR-MILE LIMIT.

Judge Brown Rules Against Washington Township Constables-Appeal in Roby Racing Case Filed.

Judge Brown, of the Circuit Court, has refused to enjoin the State Board of Agriculture from employing city police at the State fair grounds. The attempt to enjoin the board was made by James L. Ellis, a Washington township constable, who maintained that Washington township was a corporation and the State fair grounds being situated inside its boundaries, the constabulary of the township should have control. The Board of Public Safety was made a party to the suit. Judge Brown held that the amended city charter gives the Board of Safety power to send special police into any part of the county when it is deemed necessary by the William G. Young, trustee of the affairs of Emily J. Sherman, was yesterday made defendant in a suit for injunction filed inthe Superior Court by Ernest B. Sherman. The latter avers that in August, 1895, he was the owner of the lease and equipment of the Sherman Cafe, No. 59 South Illinois street. He charges that on Aug. 30 Mrs. Sherman wrongfully and without right gave a quitclaim to the property and confit of her creditors. The plaintiff avers that at the time of such conveyance Mrs. Sherman had no right or interest in the restaurant. Later on William G. Young was appointed to succeed Kiersted as trustee of the trust and procured an order from the court authorizing him to sell the property, It is charged by the plaintiff that the trustee is making an inventory of the prop-erty to the injury of the plaintiff's credit. Precautions to Be Taken in the Schools-August an Unusual Month.

The records of the health department show a larger number of cases of diphtheria during the month of August than during any month in the year. The year has also been ahead of other years in cent opening of the public schools, City Sanitarian Wynn has decided that every precaution should be taken to prevent the pread of the disease. To this end he has sent a letter of instruction to each of the undertakers of the city concerning burials of persons dying from contagious He especially impresses upon them the necessity of making the funerals

Dr. Wynn has also addressed a letter to Superintendent Goss and one to each of the principals of the schools in regard to measures to be taken at the schools. There will be an inspection of the schools made this week. In the letter to the principals he directs that no child should be allowed to remain in school that shows the slightest fever symptons. By taking these precautions, Dr. Wynn hopes to be able to keep the disease from spreading.

ALLEGES PERJURY

CHARGES OF H. H. BARNARD AGAINST EDWARD L. SHELL.

Shell Arrested and an Unusual Comes to the Surface Thereby.

Edward L. Shell, claiming to come from Fort Wayne, was arrested here yesterday afternoon as a fugitive. He is wanted in Rushville on a charge of perjury. Shell's Barnard, of Knightstown, who, according to his story, has suffered much on account boy was injured at the Virginia-avenue of Shell. The story is that Shell went to was necessary to amputate one of his mendations purporting to be from ex-Lieuenant Governor Robertson and other prominent citizens of Fort Wayne. He represent-Louis E. Otto filed a suit for divorce yes- a short time he was admitted to the best terday against his wife, Eldora Otto, in families in Knightstown, and eventually married the seventeen-year-old daughter of unfaithful to her marriage vows. He says H. R. Walls. Shortly afterward H. H. Barnard, who is a traveling photographer, name of the defendant is connected with appeared in the town and was met by Shell. Barnard knew Shell's past record in Fort Wayne, and claims that he tried to avoid him, but was finally prevailed upon to call upon his bride. Mr. Walls asked Barnard as to the past of Shell, and Barnard told him he had better write to the parties at Fort Wayne from whom Shell claimed to hold letters of recommendation. This was done, and some one then claimed that the letters were forgeries. Barnard then went to Rushville, following his line of business. A few days after his departure from Knightstown there appeared in the Sun, of that city, a retraction, apparently drawn up and sworn to in the presence of B. F. Miller, a notary public of Rushville, in which Barnard made denial of all he had said concernig Shell. When Barnard was notified he denounced the supposed retraction as a forgery and made affidavits against Shell for perjury, and a warrant was issued for his arrest. At the same time Mrs. Shell, the bride of only a few weeks, began suit for divorce. On last Monday a telegram was received at Rushville from the sheriff of Miami county asking for the arrest and detention of H. H. Barnard for burglary, on a war-rant sworn out by E. E. White, subsequently proved to be it is claimed. Barnard was consequently arrested and held in jail for twenty-four hours before the mistake was When no official appeared to take Barnard to Peru, where the alleged burglary took place, he was released. He has since proven that on the day when the robbery was alleged to have taken place he was taking pictures in Rushville. Shell could not be found until Barnard appened upon him on the streets here yesterday afternoon. It is learned that Shell has been in this city at numerous times, always stopping at the Chitwood House, No. 27 North New Jersey street, where he registered under the name of Litton. Yesterday he refused to state what his real name is. He was known here as a commercial traveler for a grocery firm of Fort Wayne, and at other places he passed as a representative of an oil house. He stoutly asserts that Barnard is the scoundrel, but Barnard claims he is the only one of the two who tells a straightforward story. Sheriff McFarland, of Rushville, came after the prisoner, and will return with him this

THIS IS WHAT THE MANAGEMENT PROMISES THIS YEAR.

Opening Next Tuesday-Mayor's Proclamation for Indianapolis Day-Special Features Are Provided.

The State fair opens Tuesday. Never have the prospects for a successful fair been so bright. The railroad companies are making preparations to bring thousands to George C. Tucker, aged forty-five years, the city from different parts of the State and the managers of the fair are consequently glad. They are also encouraged by with heart complication. Mr. Tucker was the interest which exhibitors are showa brother of William H. Tucker, and for ing, for the makers of everything from twenty years he has been a contractor un- rolling pins to road rollers have asked for space. The management promises brighter wagons, bigger pumpkins, faster going wind mills, fatter pigs and better horses than ever before. This having been a good year for many growing things some sensational exhibits are expected. It will be a great exhibit for producers and the taste of the general public is to be considered for, besides the exhibits of animals, vegetables and manufacturers articles, there are to be interesting races, good music and sideshows without end.

The racing this week promises to be as good as any given by a trotting or pacing association this year. Each event has many entries and nearly all the horses are good performers. The purses offered by the State Board of Agriculture are sufficient to bring the best to the track. No pool selling is to be allowed. The management was offered $5,000 for the usual betting privileges found at a race track, but it was decided not to permit pools. It might be added that the track is in fine condition and some excellent sport is prom-

Tuesday is to be Children's day, but it is not to be such a children's day as has been presented by some fair associations. The exhibit are to be in place and exposed to view, there are to be races and there are to be exercises of great interest. One arrest was caused by a young man, H. H. of the features of the day is a flag exercise by one thousand children, dressed in red, white and blue. They are to be so arranged as to represent the American flag and a number of patriotic songs are to be

Music day. A majority of the business houses and factories will close during afternoon, atlowing employes an opportunity to attend the fair. There are to be number of bands on the grounds, chief of which is the Second Regiment Band, of Chicago. The Commercial Club has recommended that all places of business close at noon upon the day. Mayor Denny yesterday issued an order instructing the heads of the various departments to give their employes a half-holiday next Wednesday afternoon so they may attend the State fair on Indianapolis day. This will extend to the employes of the street commissioners' department. He has also issued a proclamation asking all business houses and factories to give their employes a half holiday at that time. The Board of Trade, through President I. S. Gordon, yesterday addressed a card to merchants and business men of the city, "The Indiana State Board of Agriculture has arranged for a special and attractive programme for Wednesday, Sept. 18, and the Mayor of the city has called upon the merchants of the city of Indianapolis to close their places of business at 12 m. on that date. The undersigned, as president of the Board of Trade, most earnestly seconds the efforts made by the honorable Mayor and the State Board of Agriculture to make the State fair programme interesting and attractive and respectfully joins in the request that the merchants and business men, as far as practicable, close their places of business at 12 m. on Wednesday, Sept. 18, and give their employe an opportunity to attend the fair at

The crowd Wednesday will probably be the largest of the week, but on Thursday and Friday the most visitors are expected from outside districts. The street-car company promises accommodation to grounds at all times of the day. During fair week "A Night in Pekin" will be produced each evening, which will be a great drawing card for out-of-town people.

SALOONS MUST CLOSE

MR. POWELL WILL HAVE NO LET-UP IN SUNDAY OBSERVANCE.

An Extra Detail of Police Ordered for To-Day-Details for State Fair.

Superintendent Powell has ordered an extra detail of policemen for duty to-day According to his own statement, he will control the Sunday situation from now until the election "if it takes every dollar in the fund set aside for enforcing the Sunday law." It was falsely reported last Sunday that the town was "wide open," and that Superintendent Powell, Mayor Denny and Preston Trusler, the Republican candidate for Mayor, had agreed that un til after the election the close surveillance of the saloons on Sundays was to Wednesday is to be Indianapolis and cease, and on account of this report Superintendent Powell has determined that same goods elsewhere. Sunday law shall be better observed than ever before in its history. Every place which has in the past given trouble and all places which have given evidence of attempting to evade the law, will be closely watched. A few drug stores have been under suspicion, and to-day the watch over them will be doubled. Over a week ago Mayor Denny issued an order to the superintendent of police that the surveillance of the saloons shall not in the least be lessened on account of the approaching
